

The Antique Appraisal Co

Date: [REDACTED]

Customers Name: [REDACTED]

REF: [REDACTED]

Description: The bulbous body is finely enameled with a brightly coloured phoenix and iron-red five-clawed dragon pursuing the flaming pearl amidst cloud and fire scrolls. The flaring neck is decorated with flower heads reserved on a yellow ground. Each side has been applied with a monster-mask handle, picked out in blue enamel. Ruyi and lappet borders. The base is decorated with a dragon & has an apocryphal Qianlong iron-red seal mark.

Age: GUANGXU PERIOD (1875-1908)

Size: Approx 24 inches tall

Value: £3000 - £5000 (Auction Estimate)